Face Facial Features Kate Middleton - Face to Face Facial Features The Middleton Faces: Kate Middleton - Face to Face Facial Features 19 photos of Kate Middleton from Page 6, click to enter text Kate Middleton - Face to Face Facial Features Kate Middleton's most noticeable facial feature is her slightly crooked nose, which hangs slightly to the side. It's a feature that was formed at birth, when the baby's skull was forming and a piece of cartilage got stuck on Kate's mother's skull and didn't come out with the bone. Kate Middleton - Face to Face Facial Features Her eyes are another feature that's been in place since she was born. Kate's mother was born with a cataract in her right eye, which means it didn't form properly. Kate's mother eventually developed glaucoma. Because her eye was poorly nourished, it deteriorated and became cloudy, so she was born with a grey eye. Luckily, her eye didn't change over time, so they have stayed the same age as Kate.
